Item 8.01 Other Events.

On November 9, 2007, Nature's Sunshine Products, Inc. (the "Company") issued a press release, entitled "Nature's Sunshine to Seek Review of Administrative Law Judge Initial Decision Revoking Registration" in which it announced that an administrative law judge in an administrative proceeding instituted by the Division of Enforcement of the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an initial decision to revoke the registration of the Company's common stock (the "Initial Decision"). The Company also announced its intention to file a petition for review of the Initial Decision with the Commission. The Company believes that the Initial Decision will not become final pending the Commission's review of the Company's intended appeal. A copy of the press release is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by this reference.

Although the Company intends to appeal the Initial Decision to the Commission, the Company cannot at this time predict the outcome of the appeal. Similarly, the Company cannot predict what, if any, impact the Commission's determination may have on its financial statements or the materiality of such impact, if any. If a final order is issued by the Commission revoking the registration of the Company's common stock, broker-dealers would not be permitted to effect transactions in shares of the Company's common stock until the Company files a new registration with the SEC under the Exchange Act and that registration is declared effective.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

In addition to historical information, this report and the exhibit incorporated herein by reference contain forward-looking statements. The Company may, from time to time, make written or oral forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements encompass the Company's beliefs, expectations, hopes or intentions regarding future events. Words such as "expects," "intends," "believes," "anticipates," "should," "likely" and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements included in this report are made as of the date hereof and are based on information available to the Company as of such date. The Company assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements. Actual results will vary, and may vary materially, from those anticipated, estimated, projected or expected for a number of reasons, including, among others: foreign business risks, industry cyclicalities, fluctuations in customer demand and order pattern, changes in pricing and general economic conditions, as well as other risks detailed in the Company's previous filings with the Commission.

99.1	Press release, entitled "Nature's Sunshine to Seek SEC Review of Administrative Law Judge Initial Decision Revoking Registration" issued by Nature's Sunshine Products, Inc., dated November 9, 2007

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NATURE'S SUNSHINE TO SEEK REVIEW OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE INITIAL DECISION REVOKING REGISTRATION

PROVO, UTAH, November 9, 2007 — Nature's Sunshine Products, Inc. (OTC: NATR), ("Nature's Sunshine" or the "Company"), a leading manufacturer and marketer of encapsulated herbs and vitamins, today announced that on November 8, 2007, an administrative law judge in an administrative proceeding instituted by the Division of Enforcement of the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 issued an Initial Decision to revoke the registration of the Company's common stock. Nature's Sunshine currently is evaluating the Initial Decision and intends to timely file a petition for review with the Commission. The Initial Decision will not become final pending any such review.

The Initial Decision stated that revocation was based on Nature's Sunshine's failure to file required annual and periodic reports with the SEC. The Initial Decision recognized that Nature's Sunshine has made extensive efforts toward remedying its reporting violations. The Initial Decision further noted that although Nature's Sunshine has been working diligently to return to compliance, at this time, it is unable to project a date as to when it will file past-due and current periodic reports.

Although Nature's Sunshine intends to appeal the Initial Decision to the Commission, it cannot at this time predict the outcome of the appeal. Similarly, the Company cannot predict what, if any, impact the Commission's determination may have on its financial statements or the materiality of such impact, if any. If a final order is issued by the Commission revoking the registration of Nature's Sunshine's common stock, broker-dealers would not be permitted to effect transactions in the Company's shares until the Company files a new registration with the SEC under the Exchange Act and that registration is made effective. The Company does not believe that the initial decision or any final revocation order would otherwise have a material impact on the Company's business operations.

About Nature's Sunshine Products
